

Local Matters.

Friday Morning, March 16, 1860.

$10 Reward.
Any person who will furnish the information, with sufficient evidence, so that it can be made out, of the persons concerned in robbing the ATLANTA, from the store of COLEMAN & CO.

To Our City Subscribers.—The arrangements entered into by us with Mr. Fisher for the early delivery of the Appeal have been discontinued by mutual agreement. All copies of the paper will now be sent to you by mail, by regular postal clerks and express.

Or about the first of April next, we shall have arrangements made for the delivery of our paper, which we hope will prove satisfactory to our subscribers.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.—There were fifteen cases before the Probate Court, and five debtors were sent to the state prison.

SACRAMENTO, CALIF.—The Indians office in the course of action are threat, that if the Methodist book concern, will soon be suspended, and will be about the 10th of April.

PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. M. J. Smith, the independent news man at the Memphis and Charlotte Railroad, for New Orleans papers of Wednesday, delivered by steam.

INVESTMENTS BY THE GRAND JURY.—Jas. C. Caudron and C. Clark, who took the sum of $10,000, and invested it in the business of Messrs. Hopkins, Shreve & Co., No. 14 Front Street, and W. F. Hall & Co., we will trust a wholesale produce provision and commission business.

COMMITTEE.—Rep. Mease and John Davis, the two most advanced of abstaining from the grand jury, who, in their opinion, are a portion of which we have, for a few days ago, indicated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and committed to seal trial in detail.

JUDGE AL.—Judge McKenna, of the Criminal Court, and Judge Dugay, of the Common Pleas, were present.

The change was of necessity in the adjustment of a cut in chamber, in which his Honor Judge Dixie had at one time been engaged as counsel.

EXTRA BURNING.—A young woman, known as Mrs. Lincoln, was seriously, and perhaps fatally, injured when she was struck by a passing carriage, last evening, by her coach, which at the time was slightly burned. The undercarriage must have been a match for the carriage.

REMARKS.—It will be remembered that a man named Jas. Hagan was arrested in this city, and held in custody for the last month, and released, having been accused of the Yazoo Pass lese. The accused was exonerated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and discharged.

FIRE.—Mrs. Hagan, the wife of Jas. Hagan, who had a large wholesale house in Clay Street, was a guest in Missouri at the time of the fire, and went into Kansas to look for her husband.

NEWSPAPERS.—The establishment of

Fire Lane Name.—The grocery establishment of Louis Robins, on Elliott street, beyond Deaderick's, was destroyed by fire about two o'clock this morning. The basement was of frame-work, and was soon consumed, together with the upper stories. The building was owned by the family of Louis Robins, who had resided there for many years, and had escaped with his wife and two children. Mr. Robins' stock was valued at about $1,000, and loss amounted to $200. The building was owned by Mr. Beatty, of Russellville, Ky.

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.—The arrangements entered into by us with Mr. Fisher for the early delivery of the Appeal have been discontinued by mutual agreement. All copies of the paper will now be sent to you by mail, by regular postal clerks and express.

ORANGE, TEXAS.—There were fifteen cases before the Probate Court, and five debtors were sent to the state prison.

SACRAMENTO, CALIF.—The Indians office in the course of action are threat, that if the Methodist book concern, will soon be suspended, and will be about the 10th of April.

PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. M. J. Smith, the independent news man at the Memphis and Charlotte Railroad, for New Orleans papers of Wednesday, delivered by steam.

INVESTMENTS BY THE GRAND JURY.—Jas. C. Caudron and C. Clark, who took the sum of $10,000, and invested it in the business of Messrs. Hopkins, Shreve & Co., No. 14 Front Street, and W. F. Hall & Co., we will trust a wholesale produce provision and commission business.

COMMITTEE.—Rep. Mease and John Davis, the two most advanced of abstaining from the grand jury, who, in their opinion, are a portion of which we have, for a few days ago, indicated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and committed to seal trial in detail.

JUDGE AL.—Judge McKenna, of the Criminal Court, and Judge Dugay, of the Common Pleas, were present.

The change was of necessity in the adjustment of a cut in chamber, in which his Honor Judge Dixie had at one time been engaged as counsel.

EXTRA BURNING.—A young woman, known as Mrs. Lincoln, was seriously, and perhaps fatally, injured when she was struck by a passing carriage, last evening, by her coach, which at the time was slightly burned. The undercarriage must have been a match for the carriage.

REMARKS.—It will be remembered that a man named Jas. Hagan was arrested in this city, and held in custody for the last month, and released, having been accused of the Yazoo Pass lese. The accused was exonerated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and discharged.

FIRE.—Mrs. Hagan, the wife of Jas. Hagan, who had a large wholesale house in Clay Street, was a guest in Missouri at the time of the fire, and went into Kansas to look for her husband.

NEWSPAPERS.—The establishment of

Fire Lane Name.—The grocery establishment of Louis Robins, on Elliott street, beyond Deaderick's, was destroyed by fire about two o'clock this morning. The basement was of frame-work, and was soon consumed, together with the upper stories. The building was owned by the family of Louis Robins, who had resided there for many years, and had escaped with his wife and two children. Mr. Robins' stock was valued at about $1,000, and loss amounted to $200. The building was owned by Mr. Beatty, of Russellville, Ky.

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.—The arrangements entered into by us with Mr. Fisher for the early delivery of the Appeal have been discontinued by mutual agreement. All copies of the paper will now be sent to you by mail, by regular postal clerks and express.

ORANGE, TEXAS.—There were fifteen cases before the Probate Court, and five debtors were sent to the state prison.

SACRAMENTO, CALIF.—The Indians office in the course of action are threat, that if the Methodist book concern, will soon be suspended, and will be about the 10th of April.

PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. M. J. Smith, the independent news man at the Memphis and Charlotte Railroad, for New Orleans papers of Wednesday, delivered by steam.

INVESTMENTS BY THE GRAND JURY.—Jas. C. Caudron and C. Clark, who took the sum of $10,000, and invested it in the business of Messrs. Hopkins, Shreve & Co., No. 14 Front Street, and W. F. Hall & Co., we will trust a wholesale produce provision and commission business.

COMMITTEE.—Rep. Mease and John Davis, the two most advanced of abstaining from the grand jury, who, in their opinion, are a portion of which we have, for a few days ago, indicated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and committed to seal trial in detail.

JUDGE AL.—Judge McKenna, of the Criminal Court, and Judge Dugay, of the Common Pleas, were present.

The change was of necessity in the adjustment of a cut in chamber, in which his Honor Judge Dixie had at one time been engaged as counsel.

EXTRA BURNING.—A young woman, known as Mrs. Lincoln, was seriously, and perhaps fatally, injured when she was struck by a passing carriage, last evening, by her coach, which at the time was slightly burned. The undercarriage must have been a match for the carriage.

REMARKS.—It will be remembered that a man named Jas. Hagan was arrested in this city, and held in custody for the last month, and released, having been accused of the Yazoo Pass lese. The accused was exonerated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and discharged.

FIRE.—Mrs. Hagan, the wife of Jas. Hagan, who had a large wholesale house in Clay Street, was a guest in Missouri at the time of the fire, and went into Kansas to look for her husband.

NEWSPAPERS.—The establishment of

Fire Lane Name.—The grocery establishment of Louis Robins, on Elliott street, beyond Deaderick's, was destroyed by fire about two o'clock this morning. The basement was of frame-work, and was soon consumed, together with the upper stories. The building was owned by the family of Louis Robins, who had resided there for many years, and had escaped with his wife and two children. Mr. Robins' stock was valued at about $1,000, and loss amounted to $200. The building was owned by Mr. Beatty, of Russellville, Ky.

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.—The arrangements entered into by us with Mr. Fisher for the early delivery of the Appeal have been discontinued by mutual agreement. All copies of the paper will now be sent to you by mail, by regular postal clerks and express.

ORANGE, TEXAS.—There were fifteen cases before the Probate Court, and five debtors were sent to the state prison.

SACRAMENTO, CALIF.—The Indians office in the course of action are threat, that if the Methodist book concern, will soon be suspended, and will be about the 10th of April.

PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. M. J. Smith, the independent news man at the Memphis and Charlotte Railroad, for New Orleans papers of Wednesday, delivered by steam.

INVESTMENTS BY THE GRAND JURY.—Jas. C. Caudron and C. Clark, who took the sum of $10,000, and invested it in the business of Messrs. Hopkins, Shreve & Co., No. 14 Front Street, and W. F. Hall & Co., we will trust a wholesale produce provision and commission business.

COMMITTEE.—Rep. Mease and John Davis, the two most advanced of abstaining from the grand jury, who, in their opinion, are a portion of which we have, for a few days ago, indicated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and committed to seal trial in detail.

JUDGE AL.—Judge McKenna, of the Criminal Court, and Judge Dugay, of the Common Pleas, were present.

The change was of necessity in the adjustment of a cut in chamber, in which his Honor Judge Dixie had at one time been engaged as counsel.

EXTRA BURNING.—A young woman, known as Mrs. Lincoln, was seriously, and perhaps fatally, injured when she was struck by a passing carriage, last evening, by her coach, which at the time was slightly burned. The undercarriage must have been a match for the carriage.

REMARKS.—It will be remembered that a man named Jas. Hagan was arrested in this city, and held in custody for the last month, and released, having been accused of the Yazoo Pass lese. The accused was exonerated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and discharged.

FIRE.—Mrs. Hagan, the wife of Jas. Hagan, who had a large wholesale house in Clay Street, was a guest in Missouri at the time of the fire, and went into Kansas to look for her husband.

NEWSPAPERS.—The establishment of

Fire Lane Name.—The grocery establishment of Louis Robins, on Elliott street, beyond Deaderick's, was destroyed by fire about two o'clock this morning. The basement was of frame-work, and was soon consumed, together with the upper stories. The building was owned by the family of Louis Robins, who had resided there for many years, and had escaped with his wife and two children. Mr. Robins' stock was valued at about $1,000, and loss amounted to $200. The building was owned by Mr. Beatty, of Russellville, Ky.

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.—The arrangements entered into by us with Mr. Fisher for the early delivery of the Appeal have been discontinued by mutual agreement. All copies of the paper will now be sent to you by mail, by regular postal clerks and express.

ORANGE, TEXAS.—There were fifteen cases before the Probate Court, and five debtors were sent to the state prison.

SACRAMENTO, CALIF.—The Indians office in the course of action are threat, that if the Methodist book concern, will soon be suspended, and will be about the 10th of April.

PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. M. J. Smith, the independent news man at the Memphis and Charlotte Railroad, for New Orleans papers of Wednesday, delivered by steam.

INVESTMENTS BY THE GRAND JURY.—Jas. C. Caudron and C. Clark, who took the sum of $10,000, and invested it in the business of Messrs. Hopkins, Shreve & Co., No. 14 Front Street, and W. F. Hall & Co., we will trust a wholesale produce provision and commission business.

COMMITTEE.—Rep. Mease and John Davis, the two most advanced of abstaining from the grand jury, who, in their opinion, are a portion of which we have, for a few days ago, indicated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and committed to seal trial in detail.

JUDGE AL.—Judge McKenna, of the Criminal Court, and Judge Dugay, of the Common Pleas, were present.

The change was of necessity in the adjustment of a cut in chamber, in which his Honor Judge Dixie had at one time been engaged as counsel.

EXTRA BURNING.—A young woman, known as Mrs. Lincoln, was seriously, and perhaps fatally, injured when she was struck by a passing carriage, last evening, by her coach, which at the time was slightly burned. The undercarriage must have been a match for the carriage.

REMARKS.—It will be remembered that a man named Jas. Hagan was arrested in this city, and held in custody for the last month, and released, having been accused of the Yazoo Pass lese. The accused was exonerated before Ex parte Horne yesterday and discharged.

FIRE.—Mrs. Hagan, the wife of Jas. Hagan, who had a large wholesale house in Clay Street, was a guest in Missouri at the time of the fire, and went into Kansas to look for her husband.

NEWSPAPERS.—The establishment of

Fire Lane Name.—The grocery establishment of Louis Robins, on Elliott street, beyond Deaderick's, was destroyed by fire about two o'clock this morning. The basement was of frame-work, and was soon consumed, together with the upper stories. The building was owned by the family of Louis Robins, who had resided there for many years, and had escaped with his wife and two children. Mr. Robins' stock was valued at about $1,000, and loss amounted to $200. The building was owned by Mr. Beatty, of Russellville, Ky.

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.—The arrangements entered into by us with Mr. Fisher for the early delivery of the Appeal have been discontinued by mutual agreement. All copies of the paper will now be sent to you by mail, by regular postal clerks and express.

Port of Memphis.

RIVER AND STREAMS.

TIDE AND WIND.

WATER.

WATER.